

The IES Street and Area Lighting Conference is the only event of its kind dedicated to improving the outdoor lighting business of electric utilities and energy service companies. All our attendees are vitally interested in learning about your products and services and include decision makers from investor owned, regulated electric companies, unregulated marketing affiliates, cooperatives, municiapal utilities independent contractors and consultants.

Over 900 attendees will be in New Orleans this September

Attendees from electric utilities, municipalities, cooperatives and energy companies include:

Lighting Engineers

Utility Managers

Marketing Specialists

Technical Specialists

Lighting Consultants

EXHIBIT RULES & REGULATIONS 2025

All exhibitors participating in IES's SALC must adhere to the following rules and regulations. These rules and regulations may be amended and changed as necessary for the orderly conduct of the Conference. Any changes will be proivided to exhibitors.

Cancellation Policy

In the event that the Exhibitor/ Sponsor cancels its reservation of space, the Exhibitor/ sponsor will forfeit the entire fee and the space will be released to the wait-list immediately. The IES reserves the right to reconfigure space as necessary. If the IES cancels the conference for reasons other than force majeure, its only responsibility shall be to refund the exhibit fee. In the event that the 2025 conference is postponed or cancelled for reasons beyond the control of IES (force majeure, including but not limited to actions taken by hotel or their members, employees, agents, or assigns; and war, fire, flood, construction, public catastrophe, public enemy, or acts of God) IES's sole obligation shall be either: to provide roughly equivalent substitute space at the rescheduled event (if rescheduled in 2026), or to refund the rental fee, less any nonrecoverable expenses for the space.

Liability and Insurance - Hold Harmless

The sponsor shall indemnify, save, and hold harmless the IES, the convention center, GoGather and their members, officers, directors, employees, agents, and assigns from and against, any and all claims, losses, damages, injuries, awards, fines, governmental charges of fines, and liability - together with all costs, expenses and reasonable attorneys' fees in connection with its display or presence at the conference (including, but not limited to, installation, operation, use, visitation, and removal of the display). The obligations set out in this paragraph shall exclude instances of gross negligence on the part of the IES or the hotel. It shall be solely the exhibitor/sponsor's responsibility to obtain adequate insurance for its participation in this event, including but not limited to insurance covering cancellation, event interruption, liability, personal injury, and property loss/damage. Minimum Liability Insurance: One million dollars ($1,000,000) US.

Exhibitors shall provide a certification of insurance to IES by 8-1-25.

Conflict of Interest

No sponsor can schedule outside activities for Conference participants (such as golf outings, tours, or other special events) during Conference hours or any official Conference sponsored events. Any sponsor hosting such activities will be asked to leave the Conference. No sponsor may have non-registered staff or clients at the Conference or Exhibits (i.e., schedule meetings)

General Code of Conduct

To ensure all attendees have the opportunity to meet and network, I (as acting representative of my company) agree to abide by the Conference guidelines developed by the IES and its committee members:

- My company will not host a hospitality suite during this conference at any hotel.
- My company will not take attendees away from an official Conference event or off-site during official conference hours.
- My company will confine my products to the booked booth space (with Max. 8' height for 2025) or 6-foot table
- My company will not violate any applicable laws or regulations; or any IES policies, guidelines or other codes of conduct including the IES vaccination policy for in person events.
- My company will not utilize recording services (in-house or third-party) for audio and video recordings at any time without the express written permission of the IES. This includes, but is not limited to, professional photographers, drones equipped with camera equipment, etc. The use of drones of any kind is prohibited.
- My company's representative will not be in the Exhibit Hall after closing time and will exit promptly.
 I understand that failure to do so could result in a penalty including, but not limited to a ban from future booth registration.
- Exhibitor may not exhibit multiple product lines from unrelated suppliers. Exhibit space may only be used by the company purchasing the space and may not be divided, shared, sublet, sold or transferred. Questions on interpretation should be directed to the Conference Chair or IES Marketing Director. All exhibitor application will be reviewed by IES and SALC to assure conformance.

Space Assignments

Space requests will be assigned in order of receipt of applications, level and payment. Due to the large number of companies offering similar or related product lines, the IES will make every effort but cannot guarantee that a supplier presenting similar products or a competitor will not be located in a nearby or adjoining space. The IES retains the right to refuse or deny any application submitted for this event, in which case it shall refund the fee. The IES shall not be deemed to have approved an application until it has both deposited the exhibit fee and returned a signed confirmation letter. The exhibitor agrees to comply with the rules and conditions of the Exhibitor Prospectus and such other terms and conditions as the IES and hotel may impose at any time. The IES reserves the right, at any time and without liability to the Exhibitor or anyone else, to withdraw its approval of an application or to require the exhibitor to vacate the exhibit hall for just cause (which includes, but is not limited to, violation of any of the rules and conditions or interference with neighbouring exhibits or the show activities.

Sponsor Materials

Exhibitors may distribute material in the hall on their table. Materials left in public areas will be removed. Advertising materials may not be displayed in hotel hallways or reception areas.

Badges

Sponsors must wear conference badges at all times in the hall and conference area for identification.

Appearance and Operation

No exhibit may interfere with the line of sight to any neighbouring sponsor. IES has the right to mask, move, or disassemble any table that chooses not to comply with at the expense of said exhibitor.

IES reserves the right to prohibit or restrict exhibits that because of noise, method of operation, materials, or any other reason become objectionable, and also to evict any sponsor whose conduct, in the opinion of IES, may detract from the general character of the event. In the event of such restriction or eviction, IES is not liable to refund any of the sponsor expenses. No sponsor is allowed to assign, sublet, or apportion, for money or otherwise, the whole or part of space allotted him or her unless permission is granted in writing by IES.

Fireproofing

The exhibitors must strictly comply with all local fire and safety regulations. All decorations and booth equipment must be fire proofed and electrical wiring must meet the safety requirements of the hotel. Affidavits attesting to flame-proof compliance with fire department regulations must be submitted when requested, No combustible material may be stored in or around the exhibit booths. All exhibits must meet OSHA requirements pertaining to the safe use of tools, materials and equipment.

Floor Plan

All dimensions and locations shown on the official floor plan are believed, but not warranted to be accurate. IES reserves the right to make modifications that may be necessary to meet the needs of the exhibitors and exhibit program. IES has the absolute right to allocate and assign space among exhibitors and to relocate exhibits after initial assignments if circumstances warrant at its sole discretion.
